Creating a Culture of Collaboration:
Collecting Community Engagement Data

Tuesday, August 21, 2012 • 9:30 AM-3:00 PM
Massachusetts College of Pharmacy & Health Science
Worcester, MA

Please join us for a timely institute designed to:

1.) Build campus capacity to collect community engagement data.
2.) Provide tools, resources and best practices to improve campus culture around community engagement data collection.
3.) Share best practices among Campus Compact member institutions.

Highlights:

•Perspectives on Community Engagement Data Collection, Locally, Regionally and Nationally Panel
- Susan Connery, Director of the Feinstein Community Service Center, Johnson & Wales University
- Fagan R. Forhan, Director of Experiential Learning Opportunities and Civic Engagement, Mount Wachusett Community College
- Christopher Hourigan, Director of Institutional Research, Johnson & Wales University

•Campus Realities, Opportunities and Challenges

•Institutional Team Action Planning

•Meet your Colleagues, Networking

Who Should Attend:

Institutional Teams of:
- •Institutional Researchers
- •Community Service Directors
- •Grant Writers
- •Institutional Advancement
- •Administrators
- •Chief Academic Officers
- •Chief Student Affairs Officers
- •Public Information Officers

Registration Fee

- •Campus Compact Member: $50.00
- •Non-Campus Compact Member: $100.00

To register for this event please click here.

Sponsored by the Campus Compact offices of Massachusetts, New Hampshire and Rhode Island.