Presidents' Leadership Award

Ruzzel Zullo

River Valley Community College

Ruzzel Zullo is a student in River Valley Community College's Creative writing program and he epitomizes positive characteristics such as commitment, collaboration and vision. He evidences strong leadership capabilities by the example of his dedication, civic engagement, community outreach and work ethics. Ruzzel volunteers time in the River Valley Community College community by being the founding member of the Creative Writing Club and actively participating in Student Senate. He also serves his community by working for the Monadnock International Film Festival and is an active leader with the Monadnock Developmental Services. Ruzzel possesses the ideal qualities of the Campus Compact for New Hampshire's Presidents' Leadership Award and serves as an example to other aspiring students.

Campus Compact for New Hampshire