

PRESIDENTS' LEADERSHIP AWARD

Jamien Lawson New England College

Jamien Lawson is the kind of leader everyone wants on their team. He is committed, determined, and leads by example. At the college Jamien serves as a Peer Leader, co-teaching in the first year Bridges to Learning program, and is also actively involved with the Student Entertainment Committee. In both of these capacities he is known for being a selfless, insightful, and dependable member of the team who is well-respected by his peers. He is not afraid to do what is right, even in the most challenging situations, and this allows him to set the bar very high for himself and those around him. For the past two years, Jamien has served as a volunteer coach for the Henniker Community School's 7th and 8th grade boys' basketball team. His skills as a coach, a mentor, and as a role model are readily apparent, as he emphasizes and teaches the importance of respect among his players and their peers. Jamien has proven to be a coach with high standards for his team, but also one who is relatable and genuine in his willingness to go out of his way to help others.
