

PRESIDENTS' COMMUNITY PARTNER AWARD

Ladders Thrift Shop Plymouth State University

Ladders is a local non-profit thrift store that financially supports the Bridge House Homeless Shelter and veteran's advocacy. Sue Jehl, the Manager of Ladders has welcomed over 40 PSU service learning students and volunteers over the past year, and has gone above and beyond in building positive mentoring relationships that create a sense of belonging to the broader community. In addition, she hosts off campus Federal Work Study students, partners with the PSU Volunteers student organization, and she collaborated with Dr. Deborah Brownstein for the Consumer Behavior field research experience.
